68

Dear Brethren,

May you enjoy your visit to all the places when you intend visiting to sojourn, and return in peace and comfort to your own noble Country. To have made your acquaintance I shall always consider very high, and most happy Work I have to Collocate that Acquaintance. With the hope you will soon see these Parts again! Yours Obediently

3. Helmsley Terrace. Hastings. July 22/93.

James Castle